

Moodle Course Creation & Enrollment Workflow

The process outlined below explains how courses go from the initial creation to student enrollment and ultimately being taught.

This workflow involves several automated processes; the Center for Online Learning does not process enrollments or course shell creation manually.

